FUNDRAISING BROCHURE

ABOUT LIFEWORKS

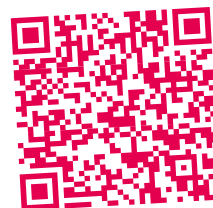

However you choose to support Lifeworks it will make a real difference to the lives of the people we support. Whether you want to get active with a personal challenge or organise a fundraising event or activity, maybe your business is looking for a charity to support, or simply want to know how to fundraise online, you will find ideas and more here.

Each year we support 200 children, young people and adults with learning disabilities to have great lives. We have residential and short break social care services, specialist further education, and lots of community projects with our young people leading the way!

TAKE ON A CHARITY CHALLENGE

RAISING MONEY FOR LIFEWORKS CAN BE REWARDING FOR US ALL

We can support your great efforts to raise money to help Lifeworks' young people achieve great things. Whether it is to take a small step or giant leap out of your comfort zone we can help you on your way.

We are partnered with established challenge providers who offer a number of exciting charity adventures and skydive opportunities.

Challenge events are an incredible way to show your support for Lifeworks, try something new, meet people and improve your fitness. Whilst challenges are not for the faint-hearted, when you complete one, you will be left with an enormous sense of pride and achievement.

Perhaps you fancy a skydive or taking an adventure trip? Get in touch with us today.

REMEMBER US IN YOUR WILL

IT WILL BE GRATEFULLY RECEIVED

Wills are a specific item or donation left in a will. They are one of the most significant contributions you can make, to support Lifeworks Learning Disability Charity.

MAKING A WILL FOR LIFEWORKS

If you want to leave a donation in your will to Lifeworks Learning Disability Charity, you must include our full name, address and our registered charity number – see below.

Reg. Charity No.1054167.
Lifeworks Charity Ltd, Room 33,
Lescaze Offices, Shinnars Bridge,
Dartington, Totnes, Devon TQ9 6JD

WHY YOU NEED A WILL

It's important to make sure that after you die, your assets and possessions (known as your estate) go to the people and organisations (beneficiaries) you choose, such as family members and charities you want to support.

Your estate includes your personal possessions, as well as assets like property (in the UK or overseas), savings and investments, insurance fund & pension funds.
